[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED]

b7D

The above information was telephonically furnished to the Dallas office and SAC MUMFORD advised that his office had no interest in the unrecovered money which, as far as he recalled, was approximately [REDACTED]. He stated the Dallas Division would send an airtel to New York and the Bureau concerning this proposition and that no further action would be necessary by this office.

b7E

Upon receipt of this information [REDACTED] was advised this matter did not come within the jurisdiction of the FBI and it was suggested he should continue to work through the Sheriff's Office or the local Police Department in view of the fact there was possibly a violation of state laws involved.

b7D

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

He was advised this office did not have jurisdiction in the matter and it was suggested he get in touch with the Sheriff's Office or the local Police Department as local laws had possibly been violated.

[redacted] COLLE and UMPHREY inasmuch as it appears that COLLE and UMPHREY are dealing with a third party who, in all probability, is in direct contact with the subject of this investigation.

There will be set out below by field office the results of toll-call checks made on the telephones subscribed to by CHARLES COLLE, GEORGE N. UMPHREY and Doc Beansy's Used Cars, which is owned and operated by VINCENT J. DELLA TOREE. All of these calls were made during 1953. It is requested that all offices receiving a copy of this letter identify the subscribers or attempt to ascertain discreetly the text of the telegrams. All offices will also check their indices for information concerning subscribers and/or persons called pertinent to this investigation, bearing in mind that firearms dealers and persons engaged in the import-export business are of particular interest. It is desired that only pertinent information be reported in report form:

The following investigation was conducted this date:

AT BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS

Mr. W. J. CAMERON, Supervisory Inspector, U. S. I&NS Port of Entry Office, Gateway International Bridge, advised his office does not have file #A-8981227 pertaining to [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] and he has no record of its having been received. He stated the Brownsville office is not a District Office, and that files requested by the Brownsville office are sent by the Central Office to the District Office at San Antonio. He stated if the U. S. Border Patrol Office at Brownsville does not have such file, it will very likely be located at the District Office at San Antonio.

b6

5 Cubans Jailed; Converted Navy Vessel Is Held

HOUSTON, Feb. 18 (AP)—A house jammed with sub-machine guns, hand grenades and "millions of rounds of ammunition," reportedly for use in an invasion of Cuba, was raided Tuesday by about 50 officers.

A 104-foot converted navy vessel was being "detained pending results of the investigation" at the edgewater dock at Kemah, about two miles from the house raided near Seabrook. Both Kemah and Seabrook are small towns on Galveston Bay about 30 miles southeast of Houston.

Five Cubans have been arrested and charged with violation of the national firearms acts and failing to register weapons. Three other persons were arrested but no charges have been filed against them. More arrests were expected.

All have denied taking part in any plot to overthrow the Fulgencio Batista regime in Cuba or planning an invasion of the island. A customs agent said "millions of rounds of ammunition were seized at the little frame house on the bay along with 'every conceivable type of weapon.'"

Federal agents, state highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies took part in the raid on the house.

Two persons were found in the house and arrested. They were Manuel Arquez, 32, and Ruby Archer, 36, both of Miami, Fla., who were arraigned before U.S. Com. Ralph Folwer on charges of violating the national firearms act and failing to register weapons. Bond of $25,000 was set on each.

Three Cubans were arrested Monday and charged with conspiring to violate the national firearms act while allegedly collecting weapons and ammunition for use in efforts to overthrow Cuban President Batista.

They were identified as Luis Chaviano Reyes, 40; Francisco Gonzales Obregon, 38, and Silverio Villemio Mario, 54. Chaviano, a former Cuban army sergeant, was arrested in a motel. Villemio was nabbed in his car and Gonzales was arrested in a house.

On 2/18/58 it was learned through Mr. SCHARFF that on 2/17/58 instructions had been given to one of his men to file complaints and obtain warrants for all the persons arrested above [REDACTED] and to also obtain complaints and warrants for RUBY ARQUES, Mr. and Mrs. McKEOWN, Commander JORGE, GARCIA, and CARMEN. ARQUES and RUBY were arrested after their arrival at the Shady Lake residence to which they apparently proceeded immediately after docking at Kemah and were put in jail. This arrest, however, occurred in the late PM after dark and Mr. SCHARFF did not learn until the morning of 2/18/58 that the only complaints that had been filed the previous day were those against the persons who had been in custody on 2/17/58. Additional complaints were filed upon the opening of the commissioner's office on 2/18/58.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] However, the search of the residence [REDACTED] may not be based on the warrant previously obtained but may be based on information furnished by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] furnished signed statements to U. S. Customs regarding their participation in instant matter at Houston, Texas.

It is believed that the initial complaints which were filed against the subject all pertained to possession and transportation of the automatic weapons and when OBREGON was given his hearing before the U. S. Commissioner on 2/18/58 he was released by the commissioner to Immigration Service because Customs had failed to establish probable cause. Immigration advised that they can deport this individual but due to the type of case it is the policy of their department, which they are obligated to follow, to permit him to voluntarily return and also not to hold such persons in jail. INS advised that they have an agreement with a local family in Houston who boards and rooms such individuals and that OBREGON had been taken to this residence.

After learning of this, U. S. Customs suddenly realized they had a statement from [REDACTED] which clearly implicated [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] An agent of this office was present when Mr. SCHARFF telephonically contacted the USA's office regarding this and from Mr. SCHARFF's side of the conversation it appeared that they contemplated filing charges against all possible subjects on the morning of 2/19/58 for violation of Title 18, Section 960, U.S. Code, and also the general conspiracy statute.

No photograph or fingerprint record of the informant was made at the Pasadena PD.

[redacted]

As a result of the Houston Post's learning that [redacted] possessed information in this matter on 2/17/58 the Houston Post broke this story. [redacted]

b7D

[redacted]

Premature disclosure of this story by the Houston Post caught the Customs Service and ATTU by surprise and on the basis of succeeding events it appears they were improvising as they proceeded with their investigation and apprehensions, consequently taking action which may give them future difficulties. At the time they apprehended MANUEL ARQUES and RUBY ARCHER without warrants, although their plan was to have warrants prior to these arrests. They secured a search warrant which may possibly prove invalid, seized the boat BUDDY DEE without securing any prior process or authority from the USA's office.

b3

On 2/19/58 AUSA advised an agent of the Houston Office that the USA was upset over the manner in which the Customs Service handled this case and stated the USA's office felt that the action of the Customs Service in making two illegal arrests, serving an invalid search warrant, and seizing the boat BUDDY DEE without process may adversely effect the case.

AUSA FRED L. HARTMAN on 2/19/58 received a call from JACK DAVITT, ^{Special Assistant to the AG} who was calling in behalf of the Attorney General, to obtain the full facts of this matter. Based on the Department's call, USA WILLIAM B. BUTLER called a conference which was attended by Customs and ATTU to ascertain the full and complete facts of Customs activities and iron out problems. AUSA HARTMAN advised that to date he has not been furnished a report from the Customs Service. USA BUTLER has requested the Houston Office to furnish him with a copy of the report of SA WARREN E. SALISBURY dated 2/6/58 at Houston. This has been done.

Reynosa Seizes Arms for Cuba

REYNOSA, Mex., Feb. 23 (AP)—Machine guns and ammunition destined for Cuban rebels were seized Saturday by customs officials.

Ramon Reymon Alfonso, a Cuban, was arrested and admitted he had planned to deliver them to Fidel Castro forces.

He said he bought them himself, with his own money, and that he had no accomplices.

He crossed the border here in a 1950 Cadillac. Hidden in the body of the car were hundreds of rounds of ammunition, and several machine guns.

He told officials he had planned to drive to Tampico, then Veracruz, and finally to the Yucatan Peninsula where he hoped to ship the arms to Cuba.
